

The British Numismatic Society, The Royal Numismatic Society with the Sylloge of Coins of the British Isles Committee
Joint Summer Meeting, 28 June 2019.
The British Academy, London

Lord Stewartby - The Numismatic Legacy

Registration Opens

Welcome and Opening Comments

Session 1 – Britain c. 300-800 AD

Lee Toone: The London Mint of the Tetrarchy (Romano-British)

Dr. Rory Naismith: The North Sea world

Session 2 – Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Viking, c.800-1100. The Birth of England -Money, Mints and Monarchs

Opening comment: Dr Stewart Lyon

Hugh Pagan: Coinage in Southern and Midland England after 939 : some thoughts and suggestions

Johanne Porter, University of East Anglia: The Anglo-Viking Coinage of East Anglia: Reflections on the St Edmund Series

Session 3 – The British Isles, c.1100-1550. Coinage, Management and Circulation

Dr Martin Allen, The Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge: Coinage in the British Isles: some new discoveries

Dr Murray Andrews, University College, London: Hoarding medieval coins: new insights from archaeology

Session 4 - Scottish Coinage, c.1140-1707. Interpretation and Resources

Nick Holmes, Research Associate, National Museum of Scotland: The recording and interpretation of Scottish Mediaeval coin hoards

Andrew Burnett, The British Museum: Before Ian Stewartby - Numismatists in Scotland, 1600-1750

Dr Donal Bateson FSA, The Hunterian Museum, the University of Glasgow: The Lord Stewartby Collection of Scottish Coins

William MacKay FSA: Publication of the Lord Stewartby Collection; an Update

Panel Discussion: After Lord Stewartby, looking to the future – key areas emerging for scholarship

Closing Comments

Stewartby family

Chairmen